Re: Pacelli and Crump v. Augustus Intelligence, Inc., Case No. 20-CV-1011 (LJL)

Dear Judge Liman:

We are counsel for defendant, Augustus Intelligence, Inc. (“Defendant”) and have just filed our appearance in this matter.¹ We submit this letter application pursuant to Your Honor’s Individual Rule 1(C), to request an adjournment of the evidentiary hearing currently scheduled in this matter for March 16, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. (See ECF Doc. No. 17.)

We are requesting this adjournment because a witness Defendant intends to call at the hearing, William Webster, Defendant’s Co-Chief Operating Officer – who also has been subpoenaed to testify by plaintiffs, Marco Pacelli and Ed Crump (“Plaintiffs”) – is unable to appear on Monday due to a serious illness. Mr. Webster, who is a Florida resident, currently is being treated for a severe lower respiratory infection, and is on antibiotics and steroids to facilitate his breathing. His physician has instructed him not to work or travel, at least until later next week, and his condition also prevents him from testifying on Monday via video conference.

There have been no prior requests for adjournment of this hearing, which is the parties’ next scheduled appearance before the Court. Plaintiffs’ counsel has consented to this adjournment request, and joins Defendant’s counsel in wishing to proceed expeditiously with the hearing as soon as Mr. Webster is available. Defendant expects Mr. Webster to be able to appear at the end of next week or the beginning of the following week. As such, the parties have conferred and – pending the Court's availability – would be able to proceed with the hearing on Friday, March 20; Tuesday, March 24 or Wednesday, March 25.

We thank the Court in advance for its consideration of this adjournment request.

Respectfully submitted,
